It is very natural for a Man who is not turned for Mirthful Meetings of Men, or Assemblies of the fair Sex, to delight in that sort of Conversation which we find in Coffee-houses. Here a Man, of my Temper, is in his Element; for, if he cannot talk, he can still be more agreeable to his Company, as well as pleased in himself, in being only an Hearer. It is a Secret known but to few, yet of no small use in the Conduct of Life.

LONDON.
Yesterday it was currently reported, that there were Letters in Town from France, which gave an Account that Admiral de Torres's Ship had taken fire by Accident in the Harbour of the Havannah, and was burnt to the Water's Edge; and that several of the Gallies, and other Ships in the Harbour were very much damag'd by the said Accident.
We hear that Wednesday is appointed for the Departure of the Yachts to attend his Majesty's Return from his German Dominions.
Yesterday the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and other Governors of Christ-Hospital paid their Annual Visitation to the said Hospital, when the Boys spoke their Speeches in Latin and English, to the Satisfaction of all present.
They write from Ballynally in the North of Ireland, that the Pier there is carried on with so much Expedition as already to admit Vessels of 50 Tons Burthen to load within the Bason; and as soon as the Ground is dredg'd, there will be Water enough for Ships of any Burthen; by which means that dangerous Coak will no longer be a Dread to Masters of Ships trading that Way; because they may fall into that Harbour at any Time, without waiting the Flowing of the Tides; and are told at 4 s. 6 d. per Ton, fitted by Act of Parliament, it is expected several Manufactories will soon be established there, on which Coals, Labour and Water-Carriage, at easy Rates, are the principal Articles to produce Profits.
Yesterday Advice came, that the Mary Elizabeth, bound from Lancaster to Barbadoes, was lost the 8th Inst. near Strangford on the Coast of Ireland; but that the
