Various source media, International Herald Tribune Historical Archive 1887-2013

EXPERIENCE AN INTERNATIONAL TAKE ON THE WORLD'S BIGGEST STORIES

The International Herald Tribune was best known for its objective reporting and clear style, and for taking an unrivalled international approach to its coverage and perspective. The diversity of both contributors and viewpoints created some of the most unique and insightful coverage available to the public. It was one of the first newspapers to diversify content beyond politics and economics, and was particularly strong in the areas of arts and culture and science and technology, often covering the developments that significantly impacted the modern world before many other publications.
